THE POWER OF THE KLEENEZE BRAND

Pauline Pallant

Wear the t-shirt, I got stopped by a woman on the road and got asked to put a catalogue through her door in the next street. Met her again on my travels and she asked me to put another one through her friends door. So 2 new customers picked up there

I have also had people request the catalogue not only by wearing branded clothes but from having a sign on the cars. From the car signs we have had in the last two weeks two people have asked for info. I also had some one request for information about Kleeneze when i was wearing the polo shirt subsequently they joined the business. So does these things work I think so.

Just some positive stories on retail this week, went out doing shop adds wearing Kleeneze branded clothing in 3 shops i was ask did i have a catalogue so give all three shops a catalogue all the staff had ordered products some time ago but had not see a Kleeneze Distributor for a long time so expect an nice order soon. One other lady who is doing Avon ask me for a catalogue as she had not seen anyone from Kleeneze for over a year, also one my customers when i was delivering order ask for a catalogue as she wanted to order more products her 2 orders were €94. Also have received 3 phone calls from shop adds and flyers, while doing some shopping in Power city a salesman wanted info on Kleeneze as he saw me leaving my Kleeneze cards on the counter, wearing branded clothing will get people asking what is it or they say you do Kleeneze.....

Went into the bank today wearing my Kleeneze branded fleece and the girl behind the counter asked me why I was wearing a fleece with Kleeneze on it. I told her I had my own distributorship, and she asked me to drop her in a catalogue. I dropped her back the catalogue and had inserted 5 Kleeneze flyers and asked her to distribute them to anyone she knows who may need an extra income, She said she'd be delighted.
